Call for Applications: One-year Postdoctoral Fellowship, 2025-2026

The Interdisciplinary Unit for Polish Studies at the University of Haifa (HIUPS) seeks applications for postdoctoral fellowships for the academic year 2025-2026. The purpose of this fellowship is to promote innovative and multidisciplinary research in or related to Polish studies. We are looking for outstanding and motivated candidates who have recently received their PhD from an academic institution other than the University of Haifa, and whose next project is related to Polish cultural/geographical area. We encourage applications from candidates working in humanities, arts, and social science, who want to carry out their research in Haifa.

Applicants must hold a PhD by the beginning of the fellowship, and no longer than 4 years. Hebrew fluency is a benefit, though not a requirement. The successful candidate will be expected to be present at the university, collaborate with a host supervisor from HIUPS, take an active part in all activities of the unit, and present their work to graduate students enrolled in Polish studies. The stipend will be approximately 80,000 ILS in monthly payments.

Please submit the following materials in a single PDF file:

- CV including list of publications,
- Project description and research plan (up to 3 pages + bibliography up to 1 page)
- Dissertation abstract (up to 2 pages)
- Writing sample (up to 8,000 words)

Three letters of recommendation from scholars in the field, including a letter from PhD supervisor, should be emailed directly by referees to: anvaturi1@gmail.com

Applications should be emailed to HIUPS at anvaturi1@gmail.com by August 31, 2025.
Answers will be sent during October 2025.

The University of Haifa and HIUPS are committed to cultural, racial and gender equity.
Applicants of all personal backgrounds are welcome to apply.
University of Haifa is not a visa granting institution.
